Description

Galle is a major city in Sri Lanka, situated on the southwestern tip. Galle was known as Gimhathiththa before the arrival of the Portuguese in the 16th century, when it was the main port on the island. Galle reached the height of its development in the 18th century, during the Dutch colonial period. Galle is the best example of a fortified city built by the Portuguese in South and Southeast Asia, showing the interaction between Portuguese architectural styles and native traditions. The Galle fort is a world heritage site and is the largest remaining fortress in Asia built by European occupiers.

While on your Galle City Tour you'll visit other prominent landmarks in Galle include the city's natural harbour, the National Maritime Museum & will the get the experience of watching stilt fishing which is unique to Sri Lanka.

After completion of tour return to the Hotel in Colombo.
